Dorian Wolfe is an AI-generated character, not a real person, and has no personal life story. This is general communication advice for adults. It is not therapy, medical, legal or financial advice, and no result is guaranteed. Always respect other people's boundaries and consent.

START

HOW TO USE THIS WORKBOOK

Confidence usually comes from doing small things, not from waiting to feel ready. Each day has one small action. Skip a day and carry on. Nothing here promises a result.

Do one thing	Pick the day's action. It should take 5 to 20 minutes.
Tick it	A tick is enough.
Review weekly	On days 7, 14, 21 and 28, answer three questions.
Go at your pace	You can stop, repeat or slow down.

A NOTE ON EVIDENCE

This guide uses general relationship, safety and social-skills advice plus common sense. There is little research on dating after 35, and almost none on conversations at this age, so treat everything as practical guidance, not a guarantee. Dorian Wolfe is an AI-generated character with no personal story.

IF IT FEELS HEAVIER THAN NERVES

If you feel hopeless, or think about harming yourself, please talk to someone now. USA and Canada: call or text 988. UK: Samaritans 116 123. Emergency: 911 (USA, Canada) or 999 (UK).

3 Against — what else is true

4 Kinder — a fairer version

The thought	"I am too old to start again."
The evidence for	What really supports it?

SUPPORT FOR DIVORCE, GRIEF AND RELATIONSHIPS

Starting again is easier with people around you. These services are for the stage before dating, or alongside it.

USA and Canada	DivorceCare (divorcecare.org) and GriefShare (griefshare.org) run local group programmes, often in churches. Fees and style vary. Some are faith-based.
UK	Relate (relate.org.uk) offers relationship counselling. Local centres set their own fees. Cruse Bereavement Support: 0808 808 1677.

A NOTE ON COUNSELLING

A licensed counsellor or therapist can help in ways a guide cannot. In the UK you can ask your GP or look for a BACP-registered counsellor. In the USA and Canada, ask your doctor or search a licensed-professional directory in your state or province.
